IN TORNADOReport of Disaster to Canyon
City, Tex.

TEXAS FLOOD HAVOC

Many Drowned, Hundreds Homeless, Big Property Loss—Track Wrecked in Indian Territory—Details Meagre.Fort Worth, Tex., Aug. 9.—A report received here from Amarillo says the town of Canyon City has suffered severely from a cyclone. Several people are reported killed and injured.The same storm raged at Amarillo, and an entire family by the name of Riggs was killed by lightning.Reports from San Angelo, Ballinger and Brownwood indicate improvement in the flood situation. At San Angelo the waters have receded, and the greatest loss appears to have been in livestock, though there has been considerable property and crop losses, which may reach hundreds of thousands of dollars.At Brownwood, 2,000 feet of the Santa Fe railway was washed away from hundreds of people were driven from their homes. All crops in a stretch of country thirty miles long by four miles wide were destroyed, with much livestock. Railroad tracks are under water for a distance of three miles.At Ballinger hundreds of people have been driven from their homes by the water of the Colorado, the water being several feet deep over a considerable portion of the town. The worst of the rise has passed and the waters are now slowly receding. The property loss has been heavy in that section.Eleven people were drowned. A rise of forty feet is going down the river, and it is expected that further damage will be done lower down.Ten inches of rain fell in the vicinity of Ballinger during the past two days.
The Santa Fe railway is the heaviest loser, several miles of track being entirely washed away. Many fine bridges on both the Colorado and Guepho rivers have been swept away.

ARRANGED HIS OWN FUNERAL.

Major N. P. Bowman Laid to Rest in St.

Johnsbury.

St. Johnsbury, Vt., Aug. 8.—The funeral of Maj. N. P. Bowman, who died in Pasadena, Cal., July 30, was held in the South Congregational church Tuesday with every detail of the service as arranged by Maj. Bowman before he left for California two years ago. Besides the attendance of his son, Thomas H.
Bowman, who brought the body east, and distant relatives and townspeople, the Masonic lodge was present in a body and conducted the burial service, other orders attending in a body were Chamberlain post, G. A. R. Canton Crescent of old Fellows, Apollo lodge, Knights of Pythias; Passimble lodge, P. and A.
M.; Palestine commandery, Knights Templar; Chamberlain relief corps.With the exception of the relief corps Maj. Bowman had been a member in all these orders and held the highest office at one time in most of them. The local orders and the Masons from Rutland sent beautiful floral tributes.Rev. Dr. Edward L. Fairbanks, for 28 years pastor of the South church, of which the deceased was a member, conducted the service and spoke appreciatively of his long and active life, his sterling qualities and his heroism in army service. Rev. Edwin Wheelock of Cambridge, Vt., paid a brief tribute to his old friend and repeated the 23 psalm.The burial service was in charge of Charles A. Calderwood of St. Johnsbury, grand master of the grand lodge of Vermont, and prayer was offered by Rev.
Edwin Wheelock.

APPLICATION WITHDRAWN.

Mental Capacity of Mrs. Matilda Everest of Milton at Issue.Huntington, Aug. 8.—There was to have been a hearing in probate court Tuesday on the appointment of a guardian for Mrs. Matilda Everest of Milton.
The appointment of the guardian was sought by Mrs. Everest's daughter, Mrs.
Florence Hanley. Both parties were on hand, but after a conference matters were adjourned and an application for a guardian was withdrawn. The petitioner was represented by Brown & Hopkins, while M. G. Leary appeared for Mrs. Everest, who stoutly maintained her mental capacity.Mrs. Everest, the widow of Zebedi-ah Everest of Milton, she has a large interest in her husband's estate, besides property in her own right. The application for a guardian was filed as a result of differences between Mrs. Everest and her daughter, the latter alleging that her mother was not capable mentally.

THE POWER OF STEAM.

Many May See But It Takes G-unas to Realize.When James Watt saw the steam causing the kettle lid to jump up and down he said "There must be power in that steam that it can lift such a weight."There was.
Millions prior to him had seen the same phenomenon and regarded it as an unexplained mystery.Recent scientific research has put its finger on the "cause" of Dandridge, Falling Hair, and consequent Baldness, and has ascertained a tiny germ which eats the hair from the roots of human hair.Newly discovered destroys this germ and consequently restores the hair to its natural state.Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in it with water, sweetened the concoction and each swallowed a third of it. They confessed what they had done, alleging that they found life so disagreeable that they preferred death. The dose of poi-
